2011
LOYOLA OCCUPATIONAL HEALTH INFORMATION

Applicants to the Loyola EMT-Paramedic Program may utilize the Loyola Occupational Health clinic to obtain the required titers/immunizations. They will accept payment at the time of service or bill your insurance company. Please inform Occ Health that you are an EMS Student.

EMT-PARAMEDIC STUDENT PRICING

- You must have a TB (PPD) test annually.

  TB (PPD) $18.00

The following blood titers are required:

- MMR $55.00
  Or individual titers for:
  Measles IGG Ab $65.00
  Mumps IGG Ab $40.00
  Rubella IGG Ab $18.00
- Varicella IGG Ab $40.00
- Hep B Antibody (HBSAB) $21.00
  HepB Ag $19.00 (needed only if AB is inconclusive)

If you have not had a tetanus (tDAP) within the past 10 years, you must have one.

- tDAP - Tetunus, Diptheria, Pertussis $41.00 (This is now recommended over basic tetanus)

The following vaccine is required prior to the start of class:

- Seasonal Influenza Vaccine $30.00 (usually available in September)

A complete physical exam is not required but is available.

Physical exam $55.00

Any of the required tests may be acquired from your physician, your employer or the occupational health clinic. A nurse or physician may sign your Immunization Verification Form. Please remember to bring your form with you!

Loyola Occupational Health
1219 W. Roosevelt Road
Maywood, IL 60152
708.531.7900